

Cuba 2010 Season Medical Case Statistics

Category	Description	N Cases	Nature of illness/injury	Treatment and Action Taken	Cases/1000 person days
1	Death	0			0
2	Emergency evacuation with subsequent re-patriation for medical attention	0			0
3	Non-emergency evacuation	0			0
4	Hospital treatment required in the local area	0			0
5	Treatment on site - serious illness/injury	0			0
6	Treatment on site - moderately serious illness/injury	0			0
7	Treatment on site - minor illness/injury	45	Treatment for insect bites/stings (no infection), jellyfish stings, cellulitis, ear problems, urinary tract infection, minor wounds requiring First-Aid, hypoglycemic, vomiting/diarrhoea requiring medical attention, sea sickness, minor cut requiring stitches, stomach cramps/diarrhoea, stomach cramps/constipation, skin infection requiring medical treatment	case), oral and topical antihistamines and pain relief for bites and stings, topical treatment to neutralise jellyfish stings, ear problems monitored (none needed treatment), oral antibiotics were given for infections, oral rehydration salts were given in cases of vomiting and diarrhoea, oral buscopan was given for stomach cramps and diarrhoea, oral aperients were given for stomach cramps and constipation, sea-sickness was treated with oral anti-sickness medication, and hypoglycemia was treated with oral glucose, carbohydrate loading and patient education.	23.0